March 2010

The Excelling Glories of Christ

I have heard Him and observed Him,
Seen His beauty rich and rare,
Seen His majesty and glory
and His bliss beyond compare.

I have marked the angels bowing
At His feet a glorious throne;
Listening to the choirs of heaven,
Praising Him with harp and song.

I have heard the voice that speaketh
Sweetest music to my ear
Words of power and love and mercy.
Ah! None other half so dear.

I have known the secret purpose ,
Dwelling in that heart of love,
To redeem His scattered members
Join them to Himself above.

"What have I to do with idols?"
When such visions fill my eyes
How be occupied with shadows
When the substance passes by?

Shine the moon's fair beams at noontide?
Can the stars be seen by day?
Nay, beside excelling glories,
Lesser beauties fade away.
