*And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new.

Not Growing Old

They say that I am growing old,
I've heard them tell it times untold,
In language plain and bold -
But I'm not growing old.
This frail old shell in which I dwell
Is growing old, I know full well -
But I am not the shell.

What if my hair is turning grey?
Grey hairs are honorable, they say -
What if my eyesight's growing dim?
I still can see to follow Him
Who sacrificed His life for me
Upon the cross of Calvary.

What should I care if time's old plow
Has left its furrows on my brow?
Another house, not made with hand,
Awaits me in the Glory Land.

What though I falter in my walk?
What though my tongue refuse to talk?
I still can tread the narrow way,
I still can watch, and praise and pray.

The outward man, do what I can
To lengthen out this life's short span,
The inward man, the Scriptures say,
Is growing stronger every day.

Then how can I be growing old
When safe within my Savior's fold?
E'er long my soul shall fly away,
And leave this tenement of clay.
This robe of flesh I'll drop, and rise
To seize the everlasting prize.
I'll meet you on the streets of gold,
And prove that I'm not growing old.
