MARK YOUR CALENDARS

Summer Bible Reading Times: During the months of July and August, we will be having a half hour of ministry upstairs from 11:45 to 12:15.

Sign-Up for Coffee: This is a note to remind folks that volunteers are needed during the summer months to sign up for the coffee break.

Supplies for Missionaries: For those interested in purchasing supplies for missionaries, Joanne has kindly prepared aboard of post-it notes listing items needed. Please help yourself to a post-it note, and when the items are purchased, they can be put on the shelves in the missionary room. The board listing items needed is found outside the kitchen.

Bon Voyage: We want to wish Sharon Stainton God's richest blessing as she travels to Scotland for nine months to continue her studies. She will be very much missed here but God has provided this new and exciting opportunity. We wish her all the best.

Does God Care

We often wonder why 'tis so
That Christians through such sorrows go.
Does God forget, does He not care
That burdens heavy many bear?
That trials oft assail the bark
Threatening to break the stoutest heart?
Such often come like tempest storm
And leave behind one spent and worn.
And then, to multiply despair,
The devil whispers "Does God care?"
Yes, "Does God care?" we ask again.
He does we know, because His pain
Went far beyond what we have known,
And yet He chose to suffer lone.
Marvel Divine that One so High
Should stoop to breathe the deepest sigh,
And bear a burden here below
Worse far by more than any know,
Such was His care for you, for me
His sufferings took Him to the tree.
So, Friend Divine, to Thee I come,
For Thou are all in all to me
Thou lovest me with love Divine
A love that far transcends e'en time.
There's none can sympathize like Thee
There's none can understand my frame
Thou'st passed through rivers deeper far,
And so canst help me by Thy power.
And now I come – just as I am,
To find in Thee solace Divine.
